Why Blanket Accident Coverage?

Here's an excellent way to help provide financial protection for your organization's staff and participants engaged in both athletic and non-athletic recreational activities. Our NRPA-sponsored blanket accident insurance is an especially good choice with its broad coverage and affordable member-only rates!

Eligible NRPA Members Include –

- Recreation Agencies and Commissions or individuals that are NRPA Public Agency members or;
- Recreation agencies and organizations that are organizational members of the NRPA with a diversified program of organized sports and non-sports activities

Aggregate Maximum Benefit

Benefits payable for the Excess Accident Medical Expense Benefit and Accidental Death and Specific Loss Benefit shall not exceed the aggregate amount of $15,000 for reasonable and customary charges resulting from any one covered accident to any one Insured Person. "Reasonable and customary charges" - (1) reasonable in terms of services, care, or treatment provided; and (2) customary in that charges made by a provider are in line with charges made by providers of similar training and experience for a similar service within the same area.

Excess Accident Medical Expense Benefit

If a covered injury requires treatment by a licensed physician, the Plan will pay the usual and customary charges actually incurred by an Insured Person which is in excess of any medical expense benefits paid. Plan pays for covered medical expenses starting within 90 days from date of accident causing the injury, we will pay all covered expenses incurred within 3 years from such date, less the deductible (if any) and not to exceed the maximum benefit amounts.

Excess Provision/Deductible – Benefits are paid on an excess basis relative to other insurance coverage on the Insured Person, which must be used first. In such cases, there is NO deductible and this insurance will apply to covered expenses not recoverable from other valid and collectible insurance. If, however, the Insured Person is NOT covered by other insurance, the Excess Provision shall not apply and full benefits are payable under this Plan, as described in the Description of Coverage, less a $200 deductible per claim.

AFFORDABLE MEMBER-ONLY RATES
